About the Logo: The CCHS Logo features "Lady Justice" that was installed on the old county courthouse tower about 1920. She was made of metal, and holds the scale cups. The statue was destroyed in the courthouse fire in 1948. (Artwork by Kim Snyder.)

About Us:

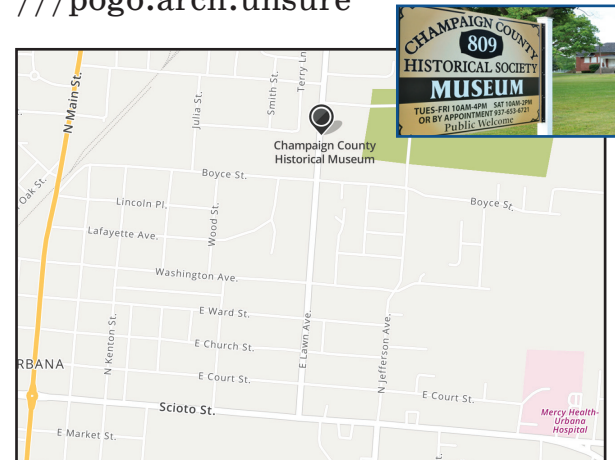

Established in 1934, the Champaign County Historical Society is dedicated to preserving local history. The Museum hosts exhibits and educational events. Artifacts, electronic resources, and event spaces are available.

The Museum is open Tuesday through Saturday, and self-guided tours are free. Curated events are available for groups and schools. Annual events include the Antiques Appraisal Fair, Oktoberfest, and members-only events.

How to find the Museum:

From Scioto Street (US 36/US 29) north on East Lawn Avenue. The entrance is just north of Boyce Street, south of Bloomfield.
